Important info to read

Very important - Our Open Day meeting and tour is on Monday 16th Parents with children starting Primary School in September 2027 should be made aware of this important meeting. See our poster below on page 2.

Our wonderful PTA have organised some very exciting Christmas activities to raise much-needed funds to purchase resources and equipment that help make our children's experience at school more enriching and rewarding. See posters below!

First of all we have a Movie afternoon with a number of movies available. Tickets will be available to order on our School App on Monday afternoon, I will send you a message as soon as the options have been uploaded on the App.

Shopping at Elfridges will be available for the children to purchase pre-wrapped presents for their family at a cost of £2.00 per gift. Payment will also be available on the School App on Monday afternoon.

One of the most exciting days of the year is when the children can visit Santa in his Grotto, a £3.00 ticket (also paid for on the School App) will buy them a gift and a digital photo.
